01/18/2005		Electronic Clerk's Notes for proceedings held before Judge Robert E. Keeton : Status Conference held on 1/18/2005. (Court Reporter Marzilli.) Colloquy re plaintiff's motion filed earlier today regarding production of documents: For the reasons noted in the hearing, the motion is denied without prejudice to the plaintiff filing a timely motion that asks the court for an order that is appropriately limited. Colloquy re settlement release: The court will not sustain a motion to dismiss at this time. The defendant may file a motion for summary judgment on this issue. The defendant will file the motion by February 8, 2005. The plaintiff will respond by March 1, 2005. If the defendant seeks leave to file a reply, a request for leave to reply and a reply will be filed by March 8, 2005. The plaintiff indicates that the court should decide RICO and breach of contract issues before ruling on the settlement release. The court indicates that the arguments should be made in the plaintiff's response to any summary judgment motion. Colloquy re EMHC: The defendant will file a motion for separate judgment. Colloquy re Griffen: The defendant will file a motion for separate judgment. Colloquy re MacLeish and Sherman: The defendants will be filing a motion to dismiss on any defamation claims by January 28, 2005. They might also join defendant GLMHRA's motion for summary judgment. There is a dispute over which claims were dismissed in the court's previous memorandum and order. The defendant may file a motion for separate and final judgment. Colloquy re discovery: There will be no discovery pending a decision on defendant GLMHRA's motion for summary judgment. Colloquy re plaintiff's allegations of continuing retaliation: Court will not issue an order based on an oral motion. If the plaintiff seeks an order from the court, he can file a written motion that is appropriately limited. If the motion is not appropriately limited, it will be denied.(Leen) (Entered: 01/18/2005)

07/27/2005	●	Clerk's Notes for proceedings held before Judge Robert E. Keeton : Case Management Conference held on 7/27/2005. (Court Reporter Joyce.) Colloquy re form of plaintiff's opposition filings: Court would appreciate it if objections be filed as objections not motions. Court orders that term motion be stricken from the caption of docket numbers 71 and 73 and replaced with the term objection. Colloquy re docket number 66: Court explains that it has an independent obligation to avoid duplicative appeals and unnecessary delays and not to act foolishly. Court allows counsel for MacKleish and Sherman to present argument: counsel speaks; plaintiff speaks. Court denies motion (docket no. 66) but orders that MacKleish, Sherman, and their counsel do not need to attend future conferences without notice by the court, and that MacKleish and Sherman are not to be treated as parties to the case for purposes of discovery without prior notice and opportunity to be heard being offered by the court. Court explains that the same is true for trial purposes. Colloquy re docket number 69: GLMHRA's counsel speaks. Court denies motion (docket number 69) and indicates that it cannot allow this motion at this time. Colloquy re severance agreement. Colloquy re contract claim: Plaintiff submits copy of severance agreement to the court. Court finds that stipulation by counsel for GLMHRA that letter was not sent is a prima facie breach of contract. Defendant has leave to argue that plaintiff breached the contract first. Court orders that discovery commence on all remaining issues. Colloquy re scheduling: Close of discovery is on July 31, 2006; final pre-trial conference is on October 11, 2006, at 11:00 a.m. Parties may file motions before this time and the court will set matters for hearing.(Leen) (Entered: 07/27/2005)
